BRITISH FALL BACK ON AISNE AFTER DAY OF HEAVY FIGHTING

Left Wing Could Not Hold Against Tremendous Assault-New Attack in Flanders. BRITISH REPORT

LONDON, May 28 .- Following is the text of the report issued today by the War Office:

"Continuous pressure was maintained by the enemy all day yesterday against the British troops engaged on the Aisne front, and severe fighting is still taking place on the whole front of the Pritish sector.

"Toward the end of the day the weight of the enemy's attacks carried his troops across the River Aisne to the west of the British sector and compelled the left of our line to fall back. The enemy is developing his attacks in great strength along the whole of the Aisne hattlefront,

"On the right, the 21st Division, maintaining contact with the French, held its battle positions all day. On the centre and lett, the 8th, 15th and 25th Divisions, in a determined resistance, maintained their second line

"On the Lys front local fightnig was recommenced this morning in the area east of Dickebusch Lake.

"On the remainder of the British front a number of prisoners have been taken by our troops in successful raids carried out at different points during the night, and the artiflery has been active on both sides."
